

2010 China Enterprise Council Annual Conference

Navigating the Opportunities and Challenges of Incoming Chinese Business

As China proceeds to transform into an economic powerhouse, we will continue to see an influx of Chinese business entering the U.S. market. China Enterprise Council (CEC) proudly presents its 2010 annual conference "Navigating the Opportunities and Challenges of Incoming Chinese Business", featuring the honorable Mr. Chao Wang, Vice Minister of Ministry of Commerce, P.R. China, as the luncheon keynote speaker.

The CEC's inaugural conference will also boast several panel presentations, covering myriad topics including the movement of cargo, passengers, data, and capital, brand name and distribution channels, green technology, and much more. The panels will be comprised of a variety of speakers from Air China, Bank of China, BYD, China AVIC International, China Railway Construction, China Telecom, and many more. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet with the 60+ CEC members, who represent Chinese companies doing business in Southern California.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2010

12:00 PM - 7:00 PM | The LA Downtown Marriott Hotel

For more details, please visit and register at <http://www.cecusevents.org>

* Register by September 7, 2010 to take advantage of the early bird rate

333 S. Figueroa Street | Los Angeles | CA 90071 | Parking will be validated

洛杉矶中资企业协会
China Enterprise Council.

cordially invites you to attend the 2010 China Enterprise Council (CEC) Annual Conference:
Navigating the Opportunities and Challenges of Incoming Chinese Businesses

to be held at

The Los Angeles Downtown Marriott Hotel
333 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90071

on

Sunday, September 19, 2010
12:00 pm – 7:00 pm

As China proceeds to transform into an economic powerhouse, we will continue to see an influx of Chinese businesses entering the U.S. market. China Enterprise Council (CEC) proudly presents its 2010 annual conference “Navigating the Opportunities and Challenges of Incoming Chinese Businesses”, featuring the honorable Mr. Wang Chao, Vice Minister of Ministry of Commerce, P.R. China, as the luncheon keynote speaker.

The CEC’s inaugural conference will also boast several panel presentations, covering myriad topics including the movement of cargo, passengers, data, and capital, brand name and distribution channels, green technology, and much more. The panels will be comprised of a variety of speakers from Air China, Bank of China, BYD, China AVIC International, China Railway Construction, China Telecom, and many more. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet with the 70+ CEC members, who represent Chinese companies doing business in Southern California.

Register Now

<http://www.cecusevents.org/regnow.html>

(Register by September 7, 2010 to take advantage of the early bird rate)

For more information on the agenda, speakers, and sponsorship opportunities, please see <http://www.cecusevents.org/packages.html>.